

Bridge players give to charity

Albuquerque bridge players joined some 2500 players across the United States in a charity game sponsored by the American Contract Bridge League.

The Albuquerque game, sponsored by League Unit 374, was at tables. Money raised in the game was donated to the National Cerebral Palsy Association.

Albuquerque winners were: Novice section — William Camp and Ralph Gajewski, first; Mr. and Mrs. Art Hollister, second; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Trask, third; Ernie Thrasher and Mrs. M. S. Moore, fourth; Bill Clifton and John Morik, and Ray Otto and Mrs. F. G. Monaghan, tie for fifth.

Regular section — Alvin Arnold and Mrs. L. F. Schaeffer, first; Maj. C. E. Layne and Philip Carter, second; John Avery and Dore Lindemann, third; Jim Fisher and Mrs. C. H. Glover, fourth; Mrs. A. J. Goulet and Mrs. W. C. Ely, fifth; Mrs. H. O. Koster and Miss K. M. Steinz, and Charles Williams and A. O. Brackett, tie for sixth.

Mexico celebrates revolution date

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — Mexico took the day off today to honor the 62nd anniversary of the Mexican Revolution. In 1910 Francisco Madero set Nov. 20 as the date for the beginning of an armed revolution against Porfirio Diaz, who had then ruled Mexico for more than 30 years. The city planned a colorful sports parade, featuring Mexico participants of the Munich and earlier Olympic games.

Boat mishap kills in-law of Evel Knievel

ENNIS, Mont. — Famed motorcycle daredevil Robert (Evel) Knievel and his two young sons escaped injury yesterday in a boating accident which claimed the life of Knievel's father-in-law, John C. Bork.

Knievel told authorities the rubber boat in which the four were floating on the Madison River near Ennis capsized after running into a log which had fallen across the river.

Pushed Boy To Safety He said Bork, 63, was swept by his death an instant after missing one of the youngsters to safety on the log.

The four were on a duck-hunting trip, authorities said. Knievel said he and the two youngsters spent most of the day on the island yelling for help. But when more came and realizing that darkness would soon be approaching, Knievel said he decided to go for help and waded ashore.

Body Found Bork's body was found late on a sandbar about a half mile from where the boat capsized and Knievel's sons were rescued from the island about the same time, officials said.

Bork, a businessman, had been a resident of Butte, Mont., since 1946. Knievel and sons also are Butte residents.

K.Y. AUTO DEATHS LEXINGTON, Ky. — The mileage death rate — the number of deaths per 100,000 vehicle miles — for Kentucky in 1970 was 5.4, compared with 5.7 in 1969.

Scary movie filmed at Carlsbad Caverns on Channel 13 tonight

BEST BIT — Tuesday Movie of the Week repeats Brian's Song, last year's most honored film and an emotional experience not soon to be forgotten. The true story of the late Brian Piccolo, the Chicago Bears football player, this focuses on his friendship with Gale Sayers, and the tragedy which befell Piccolo. There is a great deal of humor but if the ending leaves you dried-up, better check to see if you have lost studs. It's an uplifting show all the way, dealing with man's good and noble qualities. Everything about the production is perfect, and the stars, James Caan as Piccolo and Billy Dee Williams as Sayers, are great. If you haven't seen this — or even if you have — mark the date on your calendar and be sure to watch. 7:30-9 (Channel 7).
